Single story living with a fully renovated master bathroom on a spacious, level lot in a subdivision with no HOA! Sound too good to be true!?!? Welcome to 20 Paces Lakes Drive! As you first enter the home you'll notice the neutral walls and flooring are ready to match any décor. The stone fireplace in the family room not only acts as a focal point to the room but on these chilly fall evenings it's perfect to add some additional warmth and coziness to the space.

The split bedroom plan is a perfect arrangement so that the owner's suite is situated quietly away from guests or other family members. This arrangement also works nicely should the extra bedrooms be utilized as a home office or play room for little ones.
