Inlet Terrace is one of the best kept secrets and most desirable waterfront locations on the East Coast. Perfectly positioned within walking distance to the beach and downtown, it is the premiere choice for North End Buyers. This home preserves the character and rich, architectural details of a century ago, while integrating the many thoughtful upgrades, enjoyed for many years by the current owner. Now, there is a rare opportunity for one fortunate buyer to make it their primary or vacation estate. Everything about this home is warm and inviting for everyday living, or entertaining special guests. As you walk from room to room, the energy and ambiance will take you back in time, and then--a moment later--you will experience the many modern details and conveniences appreciated by today's buyers. The multi-level deck, accessible from the Living Room or luxurious 1st Level Suite, offers peaceful water views and an invitation to enjoy outdoor activities in the spacious, landscaped yard, leading to your own boat dock. The greatest feature of all may be the luxury of choice, as you may add your personal touches to this traditional, Inlet Terrace home, or imagine the possibilities of creating the waterfront estate of your dreams with your Architect and Builder.
